A BASIS FOR AGREEMENT

The Japanese foreign minister says
Japan refuses to consider the Manchurian question in the same category with the present situation in Shanghai. This general statement is to be one point on which there can be general agreement. The only category in which to place Shanghai is that with Belgium.

What he evidently means is that the Manchurian question is to be accepted as an accomplished fact, and that the only convention, if any, that must apply only to the war at Shanghai. The Japanese powers will find that contention hard to sway, if they stand by the position of any necessity for the Shanghai affair
sore out of the Manchurian situation
there is not a shred of common sense anywhere. The Japanese are as grateful and uncalled-for as it was savage.

BRITAIN HOLDING ITS TRUMP

The act surrounding Britain with a tariff is to be passed before the year, but the whist quota bill is to come along later, how much later Mr. Baldwin neglected to state. A reasonable inference is that this bill is being held back by the government is seen with some clearness what the Dominions are willing to pay in the way of tariff concessions on British goods. The government is willing to supply a fixed proportion of British wheat requirements.

It will not be strange if the bill is not brought down before the year after the economic conference. At least it is likely to be withheld until the parliament of the Dominions have indicated their government of bidding for a wheat quota. Having called for the making of preferences by regaining the right to offer changes in no fault in this. If they are to drive bargains with Britain, Britain is entitled to drive bargains with them.

BALANCE NEEDED

The slaughter at Shanghai is the price
China pays for unpreparedness. It is no less a crime into the hands of Japan, by its preponderance of naval and military power over a weak neighbor with large possessions.

Had China been armed in keeping with what it has to lose, or had Japan been less heavily armed, that attack upon great but helpless China would not have succeeded. Had the force to be encountered been more in keeping with the force available for the attack, the result might have been different. But it is tempted. But it does not assuage.

The moral is plain. If the conference at Geneva were fit to be held, the peace and benevolent forces and take note of the facts. World disarmament is out of consideration. It is less thinkable now than it was last week. If even reduction is still possible in the light of this outbreak, something more than reduction is equally required.

What is needed is a levelling arrangement by which countries over-armed will reduce while countries under-armed will be allowed to adopt protective measures in proportion to their territory and wealth and the temptation to attack will be removed. The world is a more peaceful and aggressive neighbors. The establishment of a rough balance of military power in that way is the best hope of future peace.

Revaluation

By EDGAR A. GUEST

Let us be realistic, let us be men!
Yesterday's revaluation is coming along.
Whether the future for us lies in more.
It will be different from what's gone before.
The old days are over, the new days are here.
And property's worth what it sells for in the market.
Let's be optimistic and let's face the truth.
Men in their fifties no longer have youth.
To sigh for lost pleasures and customs is vain;
Old days are never to people again.
We may wish for the past but our faces have been
But the thing that was yesterday never comes back to us again.
We have known laughter and merriment, but now
the world is a different place.
Once its second passion, but now it is stern.
A new set of values must now learn.
A new code of conduct, a new way of life.
And faith in tomorrow any things that we need.

speak with the authority of the Government behind him. Nor would it be a bit like Mr. Bennett to add this recital to the cause of the silver collector, if he were unshakably opposed to the bi-metallic movement with which they are identified.
It is much more likely in that case that Mr. Stevens would have been told long ago to stop stirring up public opinion in favor of a change that the Government had no intention of making and would have to oppose openly if it became a live issue.

THE "NEXT" DEPRESSION

What have we learned from the depression?
One answer to that question will be applied when the legislature gets through studying the relationship between the unemployment situation and the present status of the province's finances.

As to what has been already done to minimize distress, nothing remains but to approve the agreement made by the Provincial Government with the Dominion Government and the municipalities, with whatever criticism seems to be warranted.
The money has been spent and the relief given; retroactive approval is more or less a formality.

But what about the future financial policy of the province, bearing in mind the experience of the last two years, and noting that a point has now been reached where expenditure has to be curtailed even at the expense of curtailing relief work or other necessary services? What answer credit in good times, hereafter, in order that this may be used to carry on public works when employment is needed?
That is a point on which the taxpayers
are entitled to hear from the members.
Their interest in the matter is not at all remote. The government is a body of men who are responsible to the people. The taxpayers are confronted with a definite threat that new demands are to be made upon them. The government is to be held to be responsible for the financial position of the province.

It is this sort of thing the taxpayers must expect to happen every time a depression comes along? Or has the legislature, in the exercise of its responsibility
as the exercise of real economy and common sense in the management of public expenditure; that a responsible law-making body should be able to do so? The government is to be held to be responsible for the financial position of the province.

Legislature to Drive the Agricultural Problem

STABILIZING INDUSTRY IS AIM OF GOVT.

Expected Resolution To Be Placed on Order Paper Calling Inquiry

Early and thorough investigation by the legislature of the acute agricultural problem of Alberta is expected, according to several private members of government benches. It is expected that some sort of the order paper, a resolution will be placed on the Order Paper asking that the legislative agricultural committee be called for this purpose.

Private members, in conversation on Saturday expressed the opinion that the house could do much toward stabilizing agriculture. They felt that while agriculture is the main province industry, it is not of the order of the only industry. It was a fact that when times were good and when prices went down, times also depressed.

Therefore, it appeared to be essential that something be done to stabilize the agricultural industry.

It was pointed out that when the resolution appears on the Order Paper, it will be understood that the house, in the committee of the whole, will call the legislative agricultural committee into session to inquire into the problem of agriculture, and to report to the house on the results of its inquiry.

It was also pointed out that the committee report which will be submitted to the house will be a report on the results of the inquiry.

It Pays to Be First in New Police Station

It pays to be first—not at all. For instance, there was no rush to be the first man up in the new police station, but the first man to go to the new police station was a charge of the police. It was a fact that the new police station was a charge of the police. It was a fact that the new police station was a charge of the police.

By Wallace H. Ward.
Canadian Press Staff Writer.
LARK POND, N.Y., Feb. 6.—Winners of the first scheduled game in the Olympic hockey tournament, Thursday, Winnipeg, Canada, lost to McGill University, Montreal.

The revamped Winnipeg team rarely gave the McGill defense a chance to breathe. The McGill defense was so tight that the Winnipeg team was unable to make the trip with the Canadian Olympic hockey team.

Winnipeg was scheduled to play the United States Olympic hockey team last night in the arena.

LEE'S WINNER VISITORS' EVENT CLOSE FINISH

MacMurchy Defeats Tony Woodland, of Scots, to Capture Honors in Challenge
Final, While Lee Defeats McLaughlin

Scoring an 11-4 triumph over the Tony Woodland rink of Strattona in a well-planned final at the Granite Club last night, Archie MacMurchy's brilliant Royal Club quartet captured Grand Challenge honors in the Alberta Curling Association's fifteenth annual bonspiel and lengthened their amazing winning streak to 13 straight games by this victory.

In the final of the Visitors' competition, played side by side with the Challenge final, John Lee, of Tofield, came through with a tremendous rally in the last end of the game to eke out an 11-10 win over his fellow-townman, the veteran George McLaughlin, and capture the King Edward Hotel trophy.

CROWD CRAMS
RINK TO CAPACITY
Witnessed by a crowd that jammed every possible vantage point in the Granite Club, the two finals proved interesting enough to hold the interest of every spectator for more than two hours.

The struggle for Archie's honors climaxed a strenuous day for the MacMurchy rink, who saw their chance emerge with four victories to add to their previous triumphs.

In the final against Woodland's rink, MacMurchy's rink was in a tight spot at the start, although it was their budding up the right side, the mark of the game was reached, the Royal Club entry was able to go on and win by the fairly comfortable margin of 11 to 4.

MacMurchy was a 1-0 advantage on the end, only to have the count mounted at 11 on the third end. The score remained even for only a few minutes. The water got off on the fourth end, but the Woodland rink, through a brilliant play, closed round on the fifth to score two and cut the winner's margin to one.

Starting on the sixth, MacMurchy took three ends to lead by 11-3. The single points on the sixth and seventh ends brought the count to 11-3. The Woodland rink, however, was able to bring the count to 11-3.

WHEAT PRICES GIVEN SLIGHT LIFT AT 'PEG'

Canadian Press
WINNIPEG, Man., Feb. 6.—Wheat prices at various markets gave buyers a fractional lift in the early trading today. Prices at the close were 1/2 to 1/4 higher than Friday's finish. May closed 1/4 higher at 43 1/2; improved 1/4 to 44 1/2; and October advanced 1/4 to close at 45 1/2.

Offerings were quite limited and the market to hold fractional gains. The feature was the part of the morning. New York reported a late export business out of Vancouver but foreign demand generally made no impression here.

Broccoli reported diminishing supplies of domestic wheat in Europe and suggested that continental countries would be buyers of substantial quantities of foreign wheat until such time as new native crop arrived.

Cash wheat and coarse grain trade was featureless. Spreads on all grades were generally unchanged.

STOCKS TO FOLLOW LEAD OF RAIL SHARES

Associated Press
NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Rail shares continued to slide downward to a historic level today, but the rest of the market refused to follow, and leading industries and utilities clung to their respective positions.

The market was still highly unsettled, and traders said there was an incentive to take a position on either side.

The turnover for the two-hour session was somewhat over 600,000 shares, and the closing time was barely steady for the market as a whole, although there were individual gains.

Automobiles tumbled 10 points and Procter & Gamble lost nearly half as much. In the railroads, the Union Pacific and the Great Northern were narrow leaders. The Santa Fe and the Western Union were off about a point.

A few of the manufacturing group, such as General Motors, Ford Motor Co., and Chrysler, were off about a point.

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER IN PUBLIC SERVICE

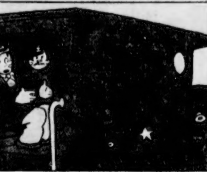

EDMONTON, ALBERTA ALBERTA'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1932.

SIMP O'DILL

By SOL HESS.

A FORTUNE TELLER TOLD SIMP THAT A BEAUTIFUL, WEALTHY BLOND WOULD CROSS HIS PATH—THAT A ROMANCE WOULD FOLLOW AND HE'D MARRY HER... HE HAD JUST STEPPED OUT OF THE FORTUNE TELLERS PLACE WHEN A BEAUTIFUL BLOND PASSED HIM... BELIEVING THE FORTUNE TELLER'S PREDICTION HAD COME TRUE, HE MADE ADVANCES AND SHE CALLED A POLICEMAN.

I DIDN'T INSULT HER OR NOTHING. I JUST WANTED TO GET ACQUAINTED WITH HER... SHE MIGHT A-LIKE ME IF SHE KNEWED ME.

MAKE YOURSELF COMFORTABLE WHILE I SEE IF IT'S CONVENIENT FOR THE JUDGE TO SEE YOU.

I DIDN'T DO NOTHIN'—I WAS VERY POLITE TO HER. I WAS

YOUR HONOR, HE WAS ANNOYING A LADY ON THE STREET—I CAUGHT HIM RED-HANDED.

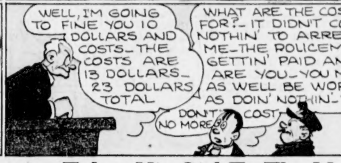

YOUR HONOR, A FORTUNE TELLER TOLD ME THAT A BEAUTIFUL BLOND HEIRESS WOULD CROSS MY PATH AND I SHOULDN'T BE BACKWARD—I SHOULDN'T

AND YOU BELIEVE IN FORTUNE TELLERS? DO YOU BELIEVE THERE ARE BOOGEY MANS AND A SANTA CLAUSE

NO, I KNOW THERE'S NO SANTA CLAUSE OR BOOGEY MAN—I KNOW THAT

WELL, I'M GOING TO FINE YOU 10 DOLLARS AND COSTS—THE COSTS ARE 13 DOLLARS—23 DOLLARS TOTAL

WHAT ARE THE COSTS FOR?—IT DIDN'T COST NOTHIN' TO ARREST ME—THE POLICEMAN'S GETTIN' PAID AND SO ARE YOU—YOU MIGHT AS WELL BE WORKIN' AS DOIN' NOTHIN'—IT DON'T COST NO MORE

ALL RIGHT—I'LL GIVE YOU THREE DAYS IN JAIL FOR THE COSTS—YOU FRESH GUY

ALL RIGHT, JUDGE—GIVE ME THREE MORE FOR THE FINE—I DON'T HAVE TO BE OUT UNTIL NEXT SUNDAY!

Junior Takes His Girl To The Movies

By SOL HESS

I GOT 35 CENTS FROM MY UNCLE—I'D LIKE TO BUY SOMETHING FOR PEGGY BUT I DON'T KNOW JUST WHAT TO BUY FOR HER

OH, BOY, I'D LIKE TO SEE THAT PICTURE—I GUESS I'LL GO OVER AND KINDA ASK PEGGY IF SHE WANTS TO SEE IT TOO

GEE, I HOPE PEGGY CAN GO WITH ME—I LOVE PEGGY, I DO, AND MAYBE, SOME DAY I'LL MARRY HER!

OH, THERE'S TEDDY GRANDON—I WONDER IF HE'S GOING TO PEGGY'S—I'LL BET HE IS

JUST WHAT I THOUGHT—HE'S ALWAYS BUTTING IN ON ME

WELL, I GOT A GOOD IDEA TO GET RID OF HIM

HELLO! HELLO—YES—IS TEDDY GRANDON AT YOUR HOUSE? COULD I SPEAK TO HIM PLEASE?... HELLO, TEDDY, HOW'D YOU LIKE A BIG ICE CREAM SODA?... I GOT 750 CENTS TO SPEND—I'M OVER TO THE SWEET SHOP—YOU'RE COMING—RIGHT AWAY!

SURE THING! I'LL BE OVER RIGHT AWAY

I'VE GOTTA GO HOME, PEGGY—MOTHER CALLED—SHE SAYS MY LITTLE SISTER IS SICK—I'LL BE RIGHT BACK

JUNIOR AIN'T SUCH A BAD FELLER—HE AIN'T A BIT STINGY

THERE HE GOES—WELL, I DIDN'T LIE TO HIM—I JUST ASKED HIM HOW HE'D LIKE A SODA—I DIDN'T SAY I WAS GOING TO BUY ONE FOR HIM

HELLO, PEGGY HOW'D YOU LIKE TO GO TO A PICTURE SHOW? I GOT THE MONEY

OH, TO BE DELIGHTED, JUNIOR
